

Application for Equivalency Credit

The student will adhere to the following process to achieve credit for prior learning through equivalency:

1. The student meets with the school counselor.
2. The student provides for the counselor all of the necessary, written documentation to support his/her equivalency request. Documentation should include: course outline, learning outcomes, total course hours and proof of certification.
3. The student and counselor complete the application for equivalency form.
4. All written documentation is submitted to the Principal for final approval.
5. Transfer Standing (TS) will be granted unless a percentage mark is provided in the written documentation.
6. Partial credit may be granted where there is a significant match of learning outcomes for that part of the course for which equivalency is being sought.
