

Student Attendance During Bus Cancellation

When a student is unable to attend school because of emergent cancellation of bus runs, the school register should annotated accordingly, and the specific absence should not count against the student's attendance record for such matters as perfect attendance awards or attendance requirements for completion of courses.

Date Adopted: June 2000