Title:	Board Roles: Trustees, Board Chair, and Vice-Chair	1.3

Purpose

To delineate the roles of Trustees, the Board Chair, and the Vice-Chair.

Policy

The role of the Trustee is to contribute to the processes of the Board as it carries out its mandate.

The role of the Board Chair is to preside over all meetings of the Board, to safeguard the integrity of the Board’s processes, and to represent the Board to the broader community.

The role of the Vice-Chair is to perform the role of the Board Chair in the Board Chair’s absence, and to be sufficiently appraised of issues in order to step into the role of Board Chair with minimal notice.

Guidelines

The Board of the Mission Public School District provides the governance direction and oversight for the School District in accordance with the specified powers delegated to the School District by the School Act. The governance direction and oversight are carried out through the Trustees, including the Board Chair and Vice Chair.

Trustees contribute to the Board as it carries out its mandate to achieve its mission and goals related to student success and the development of an improved learning environment. The Trustee’s primary task is to act as a member of a corporate Board. The oath of office taken by each trustee when they assume office binds that person to work diligently and faithfully in the cause of public education.

The School Act gives no individual authority to trustees. Trustees are accountable to the public for the collective decisions of the Board and for the delivery and quality of educational services. Trustees serve the community as an elected representative.

The decisions of the Board in a properly constituted meeting are those of the School District. A Trustee who is given authority to act on behalf of the Board may carry out duties individually, but only as an agent of the Board. In such cases, the actions of the Trustee are those of the Board. The Board is then responsible for the actions of the Trustee.

Guidelines for Effective Relationships

Trustee Relationships

- Openness – Communication in an open, honest manner is critical to success. Personal or hidden agendas are to be brought forward for discussion. Be respectful and prepared to say in meetings what is said privately.
- Seek Consensus – Ideally, decisions will be made by finding common ground and using the consensus approach whenever possible. Consensus decision-making operates best in an environment based on trust, patience, good nature and being non-judgmental. Once a decision is made it is a decision of the corporate board. All Trustees will support the decision of the Board to the public.

- Consideration – Be respectful of the start and end times of meetings. Be prepared for the meeting. Speak clearly, concisely, and with complete details, in a manner that is understood. At meetings of the Board, Trustees will direct all comments and questions through the chair to the fellow Trustees. Trustees are to declare when they are not prepared.
- Responsiveness – Be considerate of community needs, encouraging the community to become more involved in public education.
- Adherence – If any Trustee believes another Trustee is not adhering to the guidelines in this policy, they should first bring the matter to the other Trustee's attention in a respectful manner. Where a matter of this nature remains unresolved, either party may seek the assistance of the Board Chair and the Superintendent.

Trustee and Staff Relationships

- Management Team – Trustees and staff operate as a management team. This requires an environment of trust, confidentiality, patience and responsiveness. As a result of working together, all Trustees will be treated equally and will be well informed.
- Openness – Trustees and staff are open, honest and freely share information.
- Protocols – Staff should feel free to contribute to discussions in closed meetings. In public meetings staff will contribute to discussions at the request of the Chair. Any criticisms will be raised in private. All individuals must be considerate of time as it relates to punctuality and brevity.
- Accountability – Staff are accountable to the Board. Staff must be prepared to set the example of presenting and owning the solution to identified problems and issues.
- Adherence – In relation to the above, should any Trustee believe another member is not adhering to these expectations, they should first bring the matter to this individual's attention in a respectful manner. Where a matter of this nature remains unresolved, either party may seek the assistance of the Board Chair and the Superintendent.
